

FACILITIES CLOSED
SINCE 2007

FACILITIES CLOSED		OTHER ACTIONS TO REDUCE FACILITY POPULATIONS
Alabama		Reduced the number of contracted beds for adjudicated youth offenders in group homes and other privately operated facilities by 200 since 2008.
Alaska
Arizona	Eagle Point School/Southwest Regional Juvenile Corrections Complex – 2009
Arkansas
California	Heman G. Stark Youth Correctional Facility – 2010 El Paso de Robles Youth Correctional Facility – 2008 DeWitt Nelson-Youth Correctional Facility – 2008 Southern Youth Reception Center and Clinic – 2011 Preston Youth Correctional Facility – 2011
Colorado
Connecticut
Delaware
DC	Oak Hill (replaced with smaller facility)
Florida	North Florida Youth Development Center (formerly known as the Dozier School for Boys) – 2011 Polk Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2008 Sago Palm Academy (Pahokee) – 2008	In addition to closing state-run facilities, Florida's Department of Juvenile Justice has reduced the number of contracted beds in privately run residential programs (including correctional facilities, group homes, wilderness camps, etc.) by more than 1,500 beds from 2007 to 2011.
Georgia
Hawaii
Idaho
Illinois
Indiana	Indianapolis Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2009 Northeast Juvenile Correctional Center – 2011
Iowa
Kansas	Atchison Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2009 Beloit Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2009
Kentucky
Louisiana	Jetson Correctional Center – 2009
Maine
Maryland
Massachusetts

FACILITIES CLOSED	OTHER ACTIONS TO REDUCE FACILITY POPULATIONS
Michigan
Mississippi Columbia Training School – 2008
Minnesota
Missouri
Montana
Nebraska
Nevada Summit View Youth Correctional Center – 2010
New Hampshire
New Jersey
New Mexico
New York Allen Residential Center – 2011 Annsville Residential Facility – 2011 Harriet Tubman Residential Center – 2011 Industry Secure Center – 2011 Tryon Boys Residential Center – 2011 Tryon Girls Center – 2011 Adirondack Wilderness Challenge – 2009 Cattaraugus Residential Center – 2009 Great Valley Residential Center – 2009 Pyramid Reception Center – 2009 Adirondack Residential Facility – 2008 Auburn Residential Center – 2009 Camp Brace Residential Center – 2009 Camp Cass Residential Center – 2008	Lansing Residential Center (50% bed reduction) – 2009. Since 2007, NY State has also closed five non-secure group homes for low-level juvenile offenders.
North Swannanoah-Valley Youth Development Center – 2011
Carolina Samarkand Youth Development Center – 2011
North Dakota
Ohio Ohio River Valley Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2011 Mohican Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2010 Marion Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2009 Freedom Center– 2009
Oklahoma L.E. Radar Center – 2010
Oregon	Oregon Youth Authority closed a total of six units (150 beds) in McLaren Youth Correctional Facility (3 units), Hillcrest Youth Correctional Facility (2 units), and Oak Creek facility for girls (one unit) – 2011.
Pennsylvania
Puerto Rico
Rhode Island
South Carolina AMIkids Bennettsville – Camp II (40 beds) – 2008	SC Dept. of Juvenile Justice closed all five group homes (57 beds) in 2008–09. SC DJJ closed two units (80 beds) at Broad River Road Center in 2008–09.

FACILITIES CLOSEDOTHER ACTIONS TO REDUCE FACILITY POPULATIONS

South Dakota

Tennessee

Texas John Shero Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2007
 Coke County Juvenile Center – 2007
 Marlin Orientation and Assessment Unit – 2007
 Sheffield Boot Camp – 2008
 West Texas State School – 2010
 Victory Field – 2010
 Crockett State School – 2011
 Al Price Juvenile Correctional Facility – 2011
 Ron Jackson State Juvenile Correctional Complex Unit #2 – 2011

Utah

Vermont

Virginia Natural Bridge Juvenile Correctional Center – 2009

Washington Maple Lane School – 2011

West Virginia

Wisconsin Ethan Allen School – 2011
 Southern Oaks Girls School – 2011

Wyoming